

OPENING OF THE POLICE TRAINING CENTRE, WALES

BY

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES

Tuesday 15th July 1975

PROGRAMME

2.30p.m.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, accompanied by Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant of Gwent, Col. Roderick Hill, D.S.O., J.P. and the Chief Constable of Gwent, Mr. W. Farley, O.B.E., M.C., Q.P.M., arrives at the Police Training Centre, Wales and the Lord Lieutenant presents Sir John Hill, C.B.E., D.F.C., Q.P.M., Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Constabulary.

The Lord Lieutenant then presents

The Right Rev. Derek Childs, Bishop of Monmouth and Mrs. Childs

Mr. Leo Abse M.P. and Miss Abse

County Councillor Mr. A.J. West, Vice Chairman of Gwent County Council and
Mrs. West.

Mr. J.A.D. Bray, Chief Executive Office,
Gwent County Council and Mrs. Bray

Councillor Mrs. M.L. Lee, M.B.E., J.P.
Mayor of the Borough of Torfaen

Mr. M.B. Mehta, Town Clerk, Borough of Torfaen and Mrs. Mehta

Mrs. W. Farley

Sir John Hill presents

Miss Mollie Phillips, J.P. Chairman of the Police Authority Committee for the Training Centre

Mr. J.E.R. Carson, LL.B. Secretary to
the Police Authority Committee for the Training Centre and Mrs. Carson

Mr. T.G. Morris, C.B.E., Q.P.M., D.L., Chief Constable, South Wales Constabulary and Chairman of the Chief Constables' Committee for the Training Centre and
Mrs. Morris

Mr. C.D. Vaughan, LL.B. Deputy Chief Constable, Dyfed Powys Police, Secretary of the Chief Constables' Committee for the Training Centre and Mrs. Vaughan

Mr. N. Galbraith, C.B.E., Q.P.M., D.L., H.M. Inspector of Constabulary and
Mrs. Galbraith

Miss G.M.B. Owen, Assistant Secretary,
Home Office

Chief Superintendent G.J.H. Evans, M.B.E., Commandant of Police Training Centre,
Wales and Mrs. Evans

The Commandant presents

Superintendent R. Coulson, Deputy Commandant and Mrs. Coulson

Chief Inspector M. Wilson, Chief Instructor
and Mrs. Wilson

Mr. D. Brough, Secretary and Mrs. Brough

2.35 p.m. The Commandant conducts the Prince of Wales into the Assembly Hall and onto the stage accompanied by the following

The Lord Lieutenant and Mrs. Hill

Sir John Hill

The Right Reverend Derek G. Childs, Bishop of Monmouth and Mrs. Childs

Miss Mollie Phillips, J.P.

Miss G.M.B. Owen

Mrs. G.J.H. Evans

2.37 p.m. Sir John Hill invites the Prince of Wales to open the Police Training Centre, Wales and unveil a commemorative plaque (which will be on stage)

The Prince of Wales declares the Police
Training Centre open and unveils the plaque

The Bishop of Monmouth gives the blessing

The Commandant thanks his Royal Highness

2.44 p.m. His Royal Highness and party make a short tour of the Centre conducted by the Commandant. (Other groups will be conducted by senior members of the staff). They visit -

- (i) The Exhibition area where students are being instructed in a simulated police station on the searching and charging of a prisoner.
- (ii) The Gymnasium where students are receiving instruction in self defence.
- (iii) The Swimming Pool where students are being instructed on life saving with particular emphasis on the 'kiss of life' method of resuscitation

2.56 p.m. The Royal Party ascends the stairs to the crush hall, where Sir John Hill presents the following members of Cwmbran Development Corporation to His Royal Highness -

The Lord Raglan, Chairman, and Lady Raglan

Mr. R.P. Menday, M.B.E., M.C., General Manager

Mr. J.L. Russell, Chief Architect and Mrs. Russell

Mr. G.H. Evans and Mrs. Evans

3.01 p.m. His Royal Highness enters the dining-hall and meets representatives of staff and students

3.26 p.m. His Royal Highness returns to the reception hall where the following will take leave of him

The Commandant and Mrs. Evans

Sir John Hill